Why work for Milton Community Resource Centre?

MCRC goes beyond the traditional 'check in the box' approach to employee development by recognizing creativity, innovation and the work contributions of each employee that aligns with MCRC's strategic objectives. We have a wide variety of programs and services that allow our staff to explore various career opportunities within the organization. All employees are provided with a free membership to The Halton Resource Connection that allows Educators to access resources, materials and professional learning opportunities to enhance your classroom. We believe in the importance of providing wellness opportunities that support employee's mental, physical and emotional health.

We're looking for someone with the following qualifications:

A diploma/degree in social work, child and youth studies, recreation and leisure studies, or other relevant program preferred. Standard First Aid/CPR C, Criminal Record Check and Vulnerable Sector Screen required. We are looking for someone who has experience in some of the following focus areas; physical literacy, leadership, relationship building, critical thinking, and self-esteem. Experience working with female youth ages 6-13 and their families will be considered an asset. The ideal candidate will use a variety of teaching techniques including active listening, modeling, observing, questioning, demonstrating and reinforcing to support program participants.

Every day, you'll encourage, motivate and build upon the interests of our program participants by:

- Implementing the She Can! curriculum with community partners across Halton Region.
- Planning and facilitating sessions that encourage each program's focus including leadership, mindfulness, healthy living, self-esteem, and good decision making.
- Supporting the creation of social media content that supplements the She Can! program goals.
- Ensure that participants have a positive experience through virtual or in person sessions (as COVID-19 guidelines permit).
- Creating welcoming interactions that protect the health, security, growth/development and well-being of youth.
- Modeling leadership and healthy mind and body practices.
- Creating an atmosphere which builds upon individual learning styles, interests, and celebrates the diversity of all youth.
- Maintaining a positive and welcoming attitude with parents/caregivers, youth and team members to promote a sense of belonging.

MCRC is committed to diversity and accessibility. To this end, MCRC endeavors to reflect the cultures, languages and abilities of the families we serve, in our programs, services and employment practices. Please identify if you require any accommodations during the recruitment process in your application email.
