

To my Friends and Family,

Join me on Saturday, November 13, 2021 at MCRC's 7th Annual Marketplace, where I will be a vendor. This Marketplace is the perfect chance to get started on holiday shopping, with over 20 local vendors, selling unique, handcrafted items.

Admission to the Marketplace is on a Donate What You Can basis and all proceeds go directly to supporting MCRC's Empowerment Programs – free and accessible programs that are designed to meet the unique needs and challenges of women and girls in our community.

Follow the event on Facebook to see what other vendors will be attending.

Looking forward to seeing you there!

Sincerely,
