Why work for Milton Community Resource Centre?

MCRC goes beyond the traditional 'check in the box' approach to employee development by recognizing creativity, innovation and the work contributions of each employee that aligns with MCRC's strategic objectives. We have a wide variety of programs and services that allow our staff to explore various career opportunities within the organization. All employees are provided with a free membership to The Halton Resource Connection that allows Educators to access resources, materials and professional learning opportunities to enhance your classroom. We believe in the importance of providing wellness opportunities that support employee's mental, physical and emotional health.

We're looking for someone with the following qualifications:

A Degree/diploma in Early Childhood Education is required. Standard First aid/CPR level C is required. We are looking for someone who has experience with a variety of teaching techniques including modeling, active listening, observing, questioning, demonstrating and supporting children. The successful candidate will build upon the foundational knowledge of the ELECT principles, "How Does Learning Happen?" and "Think Feel Act" documents. The preferred candidate should have experience documenting children's research and learning to help them revisit thoughts and ideas expressed to extend their understanding.

Every day, you'll encourage purposeful play and build upon the interests of children by:

- Creating warm, welcoming interactions that protect the health, security and well-being of children.
- Working within the Quality First model, you will create an environment that encourages and supports children's questions, theories, ideas and discoveries.
- Supporting inclusion of children with special needs, working collaboratively with their parents/caregivers and early childhood specialists
- Developing and implementing an emergent curriculum applying core concepts of a Reggio inspired philosophy.
- Creating an atmosphere which builds upon individual learning styles, interests, and celebrates the cultural and ethnic diversity of the children and their families

MCRC is committed to diversity and accessibility. To this end, MCRC endeavors to reflect the cultures, languages and abilities of the families we serve, in our programs, services and employment practices. Please identify if you require any accommodations during the recruitment process in your application email.
