Why work for Milton Community Resource Centre?

MCRC goes beyond the traditional 'check in the box' approach to employee development by recognizing creativity, innovation and the work contributions of each employee that aligns with MCRC's strategic objectives. We have a wide variety of programs and services that allow our staff to explore various career opportunities within the organization. We believe in the importance of providing wellness opportunities that support employee's mental, physical and emotional health.

We're looking for someone with the following qualifications:

Current Students of Recreation and Leisure Studies, Early Childhood Education, Child and Youth Studies, or other relevant Diploma/Degree programs preferred but not required. Standard First Aid/CPR C, Criminal Record Check and Vulnerable Sector Screen required. We are looking for someone who has experience in some of the following areas of interest engineering/science, dramatic/visual arts, and sports/physical literacy. Experience working with children ages 3.5 to 12 and their families will be considered an asset. The ideal candidate will use a variety of teaching techniques including active listening, modeling, observing, questioning, demonstrating and reinforcing to support the program.

Every day, you will encourage purposeful play and build upon the interests of children by:

- Creating warm, welcoming interactions that protect the health, security and well-being of children.
- Being culturally sensitive and endeavoring to remove all barriers which prevent acceptance and accessibility for children in the classroom
- Being committed to raising quality care indicators through participating in the Quality First model.
- Using your experience to support inclusion of children with behavioral challenges and differing abilities to foster their development, growth and success in the program and working collaboratively with their parents/caregivers and early childhood specialists.
- Developing and implementing an emergent curriculum applying core concepts of a Reggio inspired philosophy.
- Creating an atmosphere which builds upon individual learning styles, interests, and celebrates the cultural and ethnic diversity of the children and their families
- Maintain accurate daily record keeping of attendance sheets, daily log books, accident reports and illness reports, medical forms, administration of medication forms, emergency procedures and actions and display in classroom as appropriate.
- Setting up program space and supporting children within the program may require lifting, pushing and pulling up to 35lbs

This position is supported through the Canada Summer Jobs program and as such we are looking for candidates who meet the criteria outlined by the National Strategy Priorities. MCRC intends to hire a youth (age 30 & under) who self-identifies as being part of underrepresented groups or as having additional barriers to entering or staying in the labour market. If you meet any of the following criteria, please indicate this within your application. Youth with a disability, new immigrant/refugee youth (arrived in Canada in the past 5 years), Indigenous youth, racialized youth, LGBTQ2 youth.

This information will be used for the sole purpose of reporting to the Canada Summer Jobs Program

MCRC is committed to diversity and accessibility. To this end, MCRC endeavors to reflect the cultures, languages and abilities of the families we serve, in our programs, services and employment practices. Please identify if you require any accommodation during the recruitment process in your application email.
