Why work for Milton Community Resource Centre?

MCRC goes beyond the traditional 'check in the box' approach to employee development by recognizing creativity, innovation and the work contributions of each employee that aligns with MCRC's strategic objectives. We have a wide variety of programs and services that allow our employees to explore various career opportunities within the organization. We believe in the importance of providing wellness opportunities that support employee's mental, physical and emotional health including paid sick, personal and vacation time based on position type. Our Benefits and Wellness programs include a Flexible Health Spending Account, Child Care discounts, and a free membership to THRC Resource Library.

We're looking for someone who:

- Is familiar with a broad range of artistic techniques, practices and materials along with one or more of the following skills: painting, drawing, illustration, mixed media, textiles/fibre arts, digital art, music and dance, etc.
- Has proven experience working with children and youth in an art related capacity, strong organizational, planning and time management skills, flexibility and will be able to adapt teaching practices to diverse audiences.

Every week, you'll encourage purposeful art exploration and build upon the interests of children and youth by:

- Working with youth in the Community Art Studio in a program that requires support with art and art materials and in-studio experiences, as well as arts related marketing activities within the community.
- Facilitating ACT Art Club which allows for children and youth to see possibility in materials in everyday environments including nature and providing them opportunities to experience materials by awakening curiosity and offering different materials that are not offered in other curriculums.
- Inspiring creative thinking and open-ended arts-based experiences, working side by side with children, educators, and families.
- Planning, preparing, and facilitating the weekly program sessions, as well as ensuring the general safety, development, growth, and skill achievement of children in our community.
- Modelling leadership and healthy mind and body practices while working with children participating in the weekly virtual and/or in person sessions.

Prior to employment the successful candidate will have:

- A degree/diploma in an arts related program or other relevant certificate, diploma or degree is considered an asset.
- A portfolio showcasing past work, projects and experience is considered an asset
- Current Standard First Aid/CPR C certification from a WSIB approved training partner
- Criminal record check with vulnerable sector screen dated within past six months
- Dated immunization records for MMR, DTP, Polio and 1 step TB test
- Proof of vaccination against Covid-19

The work of the Artists & Children Together (ACT) initiative is to build an understanding of the importance of art as a language. For more information about ACT visit
